SPLENDID CLOTHS, for Spring and Summer, at FAY & HUMPHREY'S.

Fay & Humphrey's Muse.

Though not yet the smoke of battle
Clears along our Southern sky;
Though the cannon thunders rattle,
And the lightnings flash on high!
And though still our dauntless legions
March to conquer or to die.

Yet for those who stay behind them,
(Ready when their turns shall come,
To oppose, where'er they find them,
All the foe's of Freedom's home;)
Every common need of mortals
Must as ever be supplied—
CLOTHING must be had to shelter
From chill blasts or hot noontide.

Care to please you unabating,
With their old ensign unfurled,
Fay & Humphrey still are waiting,
To supply a countless world.
Men and boys, whate'er your nation,
Size, complexion, taste, may be,
Come, from every rank and station,
Just YOUR STYLE you quick shall see!
Suits, for Spring and Summer wearing,
Ready-Made, shall please your eye—
You that were just now despairing,
Come to the "PEOPLE'S EXCHANGE" and buy.

Or if still you've not assented,
CUSTOM CLOTHS to suit your choice,
Every style is represented—
Look! and let your hearts rejoice
You are pleased? This way—allow me—
Walk up stairs, and in a trice,
They will measure you for what shall
Make you look so very nice
That your very wife won't know you
Till you've spoken to her twice.

Pause a moment in departing;—
Downward glance with questioning air—
Pardon! but that look is starting—
Just select another pair
In too varied forms to mention,
Ranged along the groaning shelves,
BOOTS and SHOES now claim attention—
Let them answer for themselves.
Ladies, by sad visions haunted,
Of a bootless search for boots,
Here, at last, may stand enchanted:
We've some style, at least, that suits
Everybody, maid or matron,
However her choice may fall
Upon shoe, or graceful slipper,
Congress boot, or balmoral.

HATS and CAPS of faultless fashion,
You shall see before you go—
Try that Burnside. That's becoming!
Or this, named for "Fighting Joe,"
"Fighting Joe" who leads our armies,
And will lead them through, you know.

Shirts, and Hose, and Ties, and Collars,
Gloves, from Leksleen to white Kid,
Rubber Goods for stormy weather,
All a careful notice bid.
Satchels, Cutlery, Umbrellas;
But we cannot tell you all—
Come and see us every day—
They will surely buy, who call.

THE PEAL OF BELLS.

In olden times, beside the Rhine,
There dwelt an artisan who wrought
A peal of bells, and made them take
Sweet echoes from his thought.

So soft, so musical they were,
So touched with thoughts of other years,
The voiceless air grew eloquent
To melt the heart to tears.

And where the convent crowns the crag
That rises from the vine-clad dells,
And reddens to the summer dawns,
They hung that peal of bells.

And, when the eve had hushed the dells,
And lowing kine did home repair,
A benediction soft and low
They breathed along the air.

And he who wrought them built hard by
A lowly cot wherein to dwell,
That he might hear at morn and eve
The bells he loved so well.

Ere long, his head upon his breast,
With blissful tears the sweet eyes dim,
A fair maid listens at evensong
To those clear bells with him.

And soon glad children's voices blend
With them, mirth that no cares destroy,
Dear chimes, that to a father's heart
Rang back his childhood's joy.

And thus, with those he loved on earth,
He lived calm days with blessings fraught—
Days that in music swell like those
Wept by the bells he wrought.

Till in his absence came a foe,
Who that fair convent overthrew,
And bore away the peal of bells—
His wife and children slew.

No groan nor murmur uttered he,
But straight the pilgrim's staff he took;
To alien countries bent his way—
His home he did forsake.

He wanders east, he wanders west,
Crazed by a sleepless inward woe—
A poor heart-broken homeless thing—
With feeble steps and slow.

Until it chanced green Erin's shore
He reached, and down the Shannon's tide
The still and balmy summer eve
Past Limerick's towers did glide.

Then suddenly the vesper chimes
Came on the breezes blithe swells:
He knows the voices—they are, they are,
His own beloved bells!

Folding his arms upon his breast,
His head a little drooped the while,
He listened—all the woes wan face
Lit by a quiet smile.

Old scenes, old forms, old friends crowd in
Upon his brain from happier times,
And little children's laughter low
Rings in between those chimes.

His face turned towards the waning towers,
His arms still folded on his breast,
The boatmen found him cold and still—
The weary heart at rest.

The Wisconsin Democracy.

Resolutions Adopted at the Milwaukee Meeting.

The following are the resolutions adopted by the democracy of Wisconsin at the great mass convention held at Milwaukee on the 25th.

The Democracy of the State of Wisconsin, assembled in mass convention, renew their historical pledges of devoted loyalty to the constitution and the Union, the whole Union without dismemberment, the whole constitution until amended according to its own forms, against all usurpation and violation, coming from whatever source—To this end and in this spirit we adopt these resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the constitution of the United States was and is a perpetual compact between all the States who become parties to it: that, under its provisions, no State or States had the right to withdraw from it, and that secession is the highest crime against it, that whatever doubts there may have been whether the constitution relied solely on the voluntary loyalty of the State to the Union, or gave to the Federal government the power to coerce a State peacably withdrawing from the Union, such doubts were solved in reference to the present war by the revolted States in levying an aggressive war against the Union: that, constitutionally considered, the present war on the part of the Federal government was in its inception a defensive war, but, like all defensive wars, may be aggressive in its conduct, and is or ought to be carried on by the Federal government against the revolted States to restore the Union as it was and that, as such, it is clearly within the powers of the Federal government.

2. Resolved, That a war maintained by the Federal government in defense of the Union as our fathers established it, carried on under the sanction and subject to the guarentee of the constitution, as a war enlisting the holiest sympathies of mankind, and meriting as far as mortal work can merit or mortal man can see, the blessing of the Almighty God of battles. But that a war waged by the Federal government to reduce sovereign States to provincial dependency, or to subvert the rights secured by the constitution to the several States and the people thereof, under a pretence of maintaining both, would be as unholy a war as ambition could devise or tyranny inflict.

3. Resolved, That, while we believed that the slave holding States had received long and grievous provocation, by assaults upon their constitutional rights by northern abolitionism, the original and accursed cause of the terrible civil war now raging, yet we believe the revolt of the southern States to have been without any justification or excuse at all adequate to the terrible extremity of the dissolution of the Union. We believe the war to have been forced upon the general body of the people of the South, as well as upon the Federal government, by the mad and guilty ambition of public men in the southern States, banded in a conspiracy counter to the mad and guilty fanaticism of northern abolitionists. We hold the southern revolt to have been from the beginning wholly unjustifiable, a crime against the laws of God and man, against the best government ever established by human wisdom, and against the cause of civil and religious liberty throughout the world.

4. Resolved, That the end does not justify the means, and that no cause, however sacred, can justify a disregard of public and private rights secured by the fundamental law of the government: that the usurpation of federal officers, civil and military, against the constitutional rights of the States and people remaining loyal to the Union, have been unwarranted, unnecessary, wonton and criminal. And that the present Federal administration, in conducting the present war, has left the world in doubt whether their principal object is to restore the constitution at the South, or to subvert it at the North. The history of the world has rarely shown a grosser or more systematic abuse of delegated and limited powers, or a more insolent assumption of arbitrary power, by the constitutional servants of the people.

5. Resolved, That while we will sustain to our utmost ability a war for the restoration of the Union, as long as a reasonable hope for its success may remain, we will own no support to a war waged against the constitution or the rights guaranteed by it—Our fathers founded the constitution, and if those charged with the administration of the Federal government should be so insane and guilty as to turn their power against the rights of the States and the people of the North, we fully believe that they will find the great masses of the northern people, without distinction of party, worthy of the constitution, by supporting it, and worthy of the fathers who founded it, by imitating their example under lawless oppression.

6. Resolved, That we will consent to no dismemberment of the Union, and to no abrogation or suspension of the constitution. The one is as holy and binding a duty as the other. The Union is strength, the constitution is freedom. Better liberty and right out of the Union than a government above the constitution and the laws.

7. Resolved, That, by the terms of the constitution, the only change worked by a state of war, foreign or domestic, in the rights guaranteed to the States and the people, is the power of Congress to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, which only affects the right of a person legally arrested to have the cause of his arrest considered on that process; that a state of war leaves all of the other guarantees of the constitution in full force, that the articles of war relate exclusively to the land and naval forces of the United States, and that what is called martial law, which the President admits to be the law of brute force, has no authority beyond the military occupation, and within that only over persons properly subject to it. We hold that every resident of the United States, not actually belonging to the military forces, treads its free soil, in war as well as in peace, clothed with all the sacred personal rights wherewith the constitution has invested him. Amongst these rights we find the following in the contitution:

"Congress shall make no law * * * abridging the freedom of speech or of the press, or the right of the people peacefully to assemble and petition the government for a redress of their grievances.

* * * "The right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

"The rights of the people to be secure in their person, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures shall not be violated, and no warrant shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the persons or things to be seized.

"No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public danger.

"In all criminal prosecution the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been commited, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law."

These guarantees have been systematically violated by the Present Federal administration. Not by accident, nor by mistake, but upon the deliberate assumption of the President of the United States and his subordinates, civil and military, that they may of right violate them whenever in their judgment it may seem expedient. We hold that the President and his subordinates,—are as much bound by every clause in the constitution as any private citizen, and that they hold their offices for the purpose of enforcing them. And we hold that every deliberate violation of popular liberty or private right by the President or his subordinates is a crime against the constitution, which will be followed by just constitutional punishments, if peace and constitutional order should ever again reign in our distracted country.

8. Resolved, That the proclamation of the President of the United States of September 25, 1862, subjecting all civilians to trial by court martial for political offences, some of which are unknown to the laws, the 30th section of the conscription act of the last session of Congress, subjecting the offences against civil law committed by persons in the military service to trial by court martial, the 4th section of the indemnity act of the last session of Congress, annuling the right of civil action and criminal prosecution for any act or omission against personal liberty or property committed by virtue of any order of the President of the United States or under his authority, or under color of any act of Congress during the present rebellion, and many other official acts of Congress, the President and his subordinates, not only tend to show a conspiracy to establish, but, if executed, do of their own force establish a military despotism on the ruins of the constitution. It is idle to pretend that this is only a temporary evil. Human history records no voluntary surrender of popular liberty by military usurpation. The only hope of the country is in the steadfast effort of the people to sustain the constitution in all its forms and guarantees, and to remove the terrible incubus of the present Administration and to establish a constitution-administration in its stead, in the form and as the right is given by the constitution. The first effective step to restore the constitution at the South is to restore its full observance at the North.

9. Resolved, That law and liberty are one, and that, when the law is habitually overrided by the government or the people, there is no liberty. Popular freedom and private right are identical. Public liberty is only the aggregate of personal right. We hold that we give the highest evidence of our devotion to the constitution by strenuously insisting on a government of law, and by resisting the effort of the administration to substitute for it a government of force. To that end the war itself, in its most sacred aspect, is subordinate, for, if American liberty be gone, then there is nothing left worth the expense of blood or treasure.

10. Resolved, That we fully approve of the address issued to the people of this State by a democratic convention held on September 3d, 1862. We believe that time has fully justified it, and that all assaults upon it have tended only to sustain its just views of the public condition then, and of the dangers of the future. * * * And whatever honest doubts may have been entertained that the republican party was the legitimate successor of the organization and principles of the old abolition party, have been set at rest by the President's abolition proclamation.

11. Resolved, That we are proud of the gallantry and devotion of our fellow-citizens serving in the land and naval forces of the United States, and sympathize deeply with all their sacrifices of life, health and comfort. End as the war may, their place in history is one of glory. Successful whenever beyond the reach of corrupt political influences surrounding the Federal administration—failing from no fault of their own whenever within the reach of those influences—equally patriotic and brave in either fortune,—they are the glorious brothers of our blood, and will never make good the brutal boast that, when they have suppressed rebellion in the South, they will turn their arms against their brethren in the North.

12. Resolved, That the terrible waste of blood and treasure in the conduct of the war, desolating the homes of the country and impoverishing the people, is amongst the great evidences of the absolute necessity of a change of administration as soon as the forms of constitution will admit.

13. Resolved, That the late arrest, military trial, sentence and deportation of the Hon. Clement L. Vallandigham were not only a gross and lawless outrage upon his rights, but were also an assault upon the rights of American citizenship, by violating the whole system of personal rights secured by the constitution. It is not for us to criticise the opinions of Mr. Vallandigham, whether right or wrong: it is enough to know that these were his opinions, honestly entertained and constitutionally uttered. We cordially hope to see the disgraceful assault upon American rights in his person culminate in his election to the highest office in his State.

14. Resolved, That the late attempt of Gen. Burnside to suppress The Chicago Times is one among many evidences of the distaste of the administration and its subordinates for the habits of a free people. Where the press is free, tyranny cannot exist. Where tyranny exits the press cannot be free. We regard Gen. Burnside's attempt to suppress the Chicago Times and the circulation of the New York World a wanton act of unconstitutional oppression. Gen. Burnside could not well entertain any apprehension of military evil from the circulation of newspapers freely circulating in Gen. Grant's victorious army, by express order of that gallant and successful General.

15. Resolved, That, in the present condition of the country, we urgently advise the democracy of this State to send delegates to the convention to nominate a State ticket wholly unpledged on the subject of nominations, and free to act for the best interests of the State.

Gov. Seymour's Rejoinder to the President.

ALBANY, August 8.

To the President of the United States:

I received your communication of the 7th instant this day. While I recognize the concessions you make, I regret your refusal to comply with my request to have the draft in this state suspended until it can be ascertained if the enrollments are made in accordance with the law of Congress or with the principles of justice. I know that our army needs recruits, and for this and other reasons I regret the decision which stand in the way of a prompt and cheerful movement to fill up the thinned ranks of our regiments. New York has never paused in its efforts to send volunteers to the assistance of our gallant soldiers in the field. It has not only met every call heretofore made, while every other Atlantic, and the New England States, except Rhode Island, were delinquent, but it continued liberal bounties to volunteers when all efforts were suspended in many other quarters. Active exertions are now made to organize new and fill up old regiments. These exertions would be more sucessful if the draft was suspended, and much better men than reluctant conscripts would join our armies.

On the 7th inst., I advised you by letter that I would furnish the strongest proof of the injustice, if not fraud, in the enrollment in certain districts: I now send a full report made to me by Judge-Advocate Waterbury.

I am confident, when you have read it that you will agree with me that the honor of the nation and of your administration demands that the abuses it points out should be corrected and punished.

You say that we are contending with an enemy, who as you understand, "drives every able-bodied man he can reach into the ranks, very much as a butcher drives bullocks into a slaughter-pen." You will agree with me that even this, if impartially done to all classes, is more tolerable than any scheme which fraudulently force a portion of the community into military service by a dishonest perversion of the law.

You will see by the report of Mr. Waterbury that there is no theory which can explain or justify the enrollment in this state. I wish to call your attention to the tables on pages five, six, seven, and eight, which show that in nine congressional districts, in Manhattan, Long, and Staten Islands, the number of conscripts called for is 33,729, while in nineteen other districts the number of conscripts called for is only 39,626. This draft is to be made from the first class, those between the ages of twenty and thirty-five. It appears by the census of 1860 that in the first nine congressional districts, there were 164,797 males between twenty and thirty-five; they are called upon for 33,759 conscripts. In the other nineteen districts, with a population of males between twenty and thirty-five of 270,786, only 39,626 are demanded.

Again, to show the partisan character of the enrollment, you will find in twenty-first page of the military report that in the first nine congressional districts the total vote of 1860 was 151,243, the number of conscripts now demanded is 33,729. In the nineteen other districts the total vote was 457,257, yet these districts are called upon to furnish only 49,626 drafted men. Each of the nine districts gave majorities in favor of one political party, and each of the nineteen districts gave majorities in favor of the other party.

You cannot, and will not, fail to right these gross wrongs.

Truly yours, HORATIO SEYMOUR.

A Sure Road to a Competency.

Not one man in five hundred will make a fortune. But a competency and an independent position is within the reach of most men. This is obtained most surely by patient industry and economy. If a man has ordinary talents and ability, in any profession or trade, he can, by pursuing an economical persevering course, be pretty sure of finally obtaining an independent position in life. Let his expenses fall below his income. Let him live cheap, very cheap, if necessary, but let him be sure and make his income more than cover his expenses, which can be done in almost all cases, notwithstanding the positive denial of ever so many housekeepers. A man may not have more than two or three hundred dollars a year, and may have a family as large as that of John Rogers, and he can find a way to live comfortably and lay up something into the bargain. There is much, nay all, in knowing how the thing is done. And that is the thing people who are going to make money have got to learn.

It is wonderful how few real wants we have, and how little it takes to give genuine happiness. If we could get rid of our artificial, senseless and expensive way of living, we should find ourselves better off in purse, in prospects and in heart. Let any one who has any ambition to go ahead in life, try the experiment this year, and see how much there is in economy. Make your expenses less than your income, and see how much you will have gained not only in money, but in the feeling that you are in condition which the Yankees denominate "forehanded." Try it.

The Difference between Man and Ape.

At a recent ordinary meeting of the Anthropological Society (London, Eng.,) a discussion took place on the above-named subject, after the reading of a paper, "On the Brain of a Microcephalic Female Idiot." Professor Owen oberserved that as the brain of man is more complex in its organization than the brain of inferior animals, it is more subject to injury, and more liable to experience the want of perfect development. Instances of idiocy occur among all races of mankind. Extreme smallness of the skull indicated in all cases want of intellect approaching to idiocy. Alluding to the attempts that have been made to find a link of connection between man and apes, he remarkes that it was possible that an idiot with an imperfectly developed brain might wander into some cave, and there die and in two or three hundred years his bones might be covered with mud, or be imbedded in stalagmite, and when discovered, such a skull might be adduced as affording the looked-for link connecting man with the inferior animals, but the brain of such an idiot as the female whose skull was exhibited, is distinctly different from that of the anthropoid apes; and he expressed an opinion that the difference is too wide to be bridged over by the skull of any creature yet discovered.

The Cost of Drafting and its Results.

The Hartford Times makes the annexed estimate of what the draft will cost:

It requires about 30,000 men to make the present draft all over the country—enrolling officers, assistants, boards of examination, &c, and so on. These cost the Government, in salaries, about eight times the amount paid to soldiers. Multiply 30,000 by 8 and we have 240,000—or in other words, the means to pay 240,000 common soldiers, as long as the army of enrolling and drafting officers with their assistants are continued in office. In addition to this expense in carrying on the draft the provost marshals have "guards," and more than 50,000 "invalid Soldiers" are distributed over the country to aid in enforcing the draft. Most of these are able-bodied soldiers, fit for duty in the field. It is evident that the cost of the draft, with the provost guards, is equal to the pay of an army of 300,000 men through the present year, at least.

A POLITICAL VIEW OF HEAVEN.—The New Albany (Ind.) Ledger is responsible for the following:

In General Hobson's pursuit of Morgan, while his command was passing through Washington county several officers of an Ohio regiment stopped at the residence of Mrs. Prince, near Salem, and demanded their breakfast. While Mrs. P. was preparing the meal she was interrogated by one of the officers, a pert and self-important abolitionist, as to whether she was a Copperhead or Butternut. Mrs. P. replied that she was a Democrat. The officer then asked her if she would be willing to meet a negro or an abolitionist in heaven. She replied that her Bible taught her that the soul of man ascended above, while that of the brute descended, and she was therefore not afraid of ever meeting either an abolitionist or a negro in heaven. The abolition officer ceased his interrogations.

JEFF. DAVIS' LIBRARY.—A correspondent of the Providence Journal gives the following account of the discovery of Jeff. Davis' Library:

The books were discovered only by accident. They were put up in large, strong, boxes, bound with hoops of iron. The contents of these boxes were soon brought to light, and hundreds of trophies secured, while volumes bound in every variety of rich binding—poetry, history, science—the gifts of friends from every part of the United States, congressional documents and statistics, private and political letters and letter-books, into which were copied the correspondence of years, written in the scrawling hand of their former possessor; in fact everything that exists on paper of greatest private value to the rebel President lay heaped upon the floor in one huge pile, over which the soldiers walked with dirty feet, or which they tossed hither and thither as they appeared to be of more less value as trophies of their former owner. The library was secreted in the house of a Mr. Cox, who was formerly steward of Mr. Davis.

ROBERT BURNS said that a life of Hannibal, which he read when a boy, raised the first stirrings of his enthusiasm; and, that the "Life of Sir William Wallace" poured a tide of Scottish prejudice into his veins, which would boil along them till the flood gates of life were shut in eternal rest. Speaking of his retiredacy, in early youth, he says, "this kind of life, the cheerless gloom of a hermit, and the toil of a galley slave, brought me to my sixteenth year, when love made me a poet!"

THE Home League says that the enrollment has disclosed the singular fact that an astonishing number of infants of the male persuasion were born just 36 years ago. Wonderful year, that 1827.

Our Quota.

We find the following decisions of Mr. Fry, Provost Marshal General, in the papers, and as the matter is of general interest to all who are enrolled in the first class, we give two of the principal items:

"No given number of men has been fixed as the quota of men to be drafted from the United States or any particular State. The rule is to take one fifth of the enrolled men of the first class in each and every Congressional district as the quota for that district, without regard to other districts of the state, or to other states. If in the enrollment of a district, names that should have been entered are omitted through neglect, accident, or design, the general government is alone the loser, as it calls for one fifth of the enrolled men of the first class in that district, whether it be many or few.

In assigning quotas to the districts of states, which states have hitherto furnished an excess of troops, the said excess is distributed pro rata among the districts, and deducted from their quotas."

Our city enrollment when thoroughly corrected, will give somewhere about 350 names in the first class. This will require a draft for 70 men. Add 50 per cent. for exemptions, will call for 105 men. There will be a considerable deduction made on the above, by reason that we have an excess on all previous calls, and that this Congressional District is also ahead. But we don't think that these credits will reduce our city quota less than to about fifty or thereabouts.

We cannot estimate the quota for the county as the enrollment for the several towns have not yet been completely corrected.

An Early Convention.

Should be called to nominate the County Officers and Members of Assembly. We have before alluded to the evil effects of late nominations. Last fall we had an early gathering, and our success, both in the ticket and before the people, was never better.

Important officers are to be chosen; the living interests of the masses are at stake; our County affairs and School matters are in the scales. Good men and true must be sought out: individual claims or clanish distinctions must be obliterated; none but competent, reliable, honest, and good men should be tolerated.

Undoubtedly the usual attempts will be made to foist unwrought timber upon the people, but that day, if it ever had an existence, has departed. Give us men, not dwarfs, for the various positions of trust, and a hearty response will be given by the voters. Young men should be encouraged generously, but let them wait and work in the traces until they merit promotion by their abilities and experience. Our interests are too great for any hair-brained experiments.

THE GREENVILLE DRAFT MEETING.—A correspondent in the Motor, who shields himself under an anonymous signature, but who, we believe, formerly figured in the newspapers as an "original poic," says:

"The Junior of the Crescent, by some means chanced to be present and was of course invited to address the meeting, which he did in as candid a manner as could be expected of a Democrat whose heart is not in the war. He said the Conscription Law was a bad one; but failed to tell us in what better way our armies could be strengthened and reinvigorated, so as to be able to crush the rebellion."

The Crescent establishment has given eight men and over seventy-five dollars towards carrying on this war! None of our office ever tried to get exempted from military duty on a plea of rheumatism or other disease! We did say the "workings of the Conscription Act were hard:" that "the law itself was none the best." But we also said "that law, while it was on the Statute Book, must be enforced; the Courts could alone correct its unrighteous provisions: Democrats, above all others, must obey it." We also said, "when the policy of the war was rightly conducted, volunteers by thousands flocked to the standard of our County, and under a similar policy the same results would follow."

AT LAST.—The Green Bay Advocate, edited by a disappointed candidate for Democratic honors, bolts the Democratic Ticket. Two years ago it did the same thing, and has been astride the political fence ever since, until it has long been given over to modern Republicanism. Poor disapointed, misled, Judge-Howe-governed Advocate! "Better an open foe, than a covert enemy!"

Gen. Meade is reported to have again tendered his resignation to the Army of the Potomac command. "Three times and out!"

The Republican Nominees.

The Republican Convention, which met at Madison last Wednesday, numbered 266 delegates and nearly as many candidates. The following ticket was nominated:

Governor—JAMES T. LEWIS; Lieut. Gov.—WYMAN SPOONER; Sec'y of State—LUCIUS FAIRCHILD; Treasurer—S. D. HASTINGS; Attorney General—WINFIELD SMITH; State Sup't—J. L. PICKARD; Bank Comp.—W. H. RAMSEY; Prison Com'r—CARL CORDIER.

The nominee for Governor, Judge Lewis, is a man of fair abilities and considerable honesty. He received his nomination on the grounds of expediency, i. e. to draw Democratic home gudgeon voters.

Wyman Spooner belongs to the Booth wing of the Republican church; is a good presiding officer; and is distinguished for publishing a paper in 1812, in which he opposed that war.

Everybody knows Lucius Fairchilds. He is the gallant Col. of the glorious 2d Wis. Vol's; has no sympathy with men who nominated him; and was put on to bamboozle the Soldiers.

Hastings, Smith, Pickard and Ramsey, are severally in the same positions for which they are nominated. It is unnecesary to allude to them at this time.

Mr. Cordier is from Dodge County and is supposed to be a "knowing customer." We know nothing about him and doubt if he was ever heard of, outside a small circle of acquaintances, before. This it is supposed, is intended to appease all foreigners, inasmuch as there is no other representative of that class on the ticket!

We believe we shall not be compromising truth when we say that this ticket is a Madison affair almost unanimously! Messrs. Fairchilds, Hastings and Pickard, have nearly all their property at the Capital City.

WHEN REPUBLICANS commend the nominees of the Democracy, there must be considerable perfection in the same. We have yet to see any formidable attack made upon our State Ticket by the Republican presses. Many have spoken in complimentary terms thereof. The Democracy are all united, and will march in solid Phalanx to the victorious battle. Work, earnest work, must be done and the day is ours! Let us all buckle on our armor.

GETTING SCARED.—The Milwaukee Wisconsin, on Monday last, came out in an article strongly urging that the Republican State Convention be adjourned one month, in order that "loyal Democrats" might unite with them in nominating a ticket. It wound up in the following appeal, which was all in vain:

We say to the delegates: Do not be to sure that you can elect any ticket you may nominate. THAT was the delusion last autumn, and the Republican cause lost three Congressmen."

STILL CARPING.—The Oshkosh Review is still brooding over our charge of plagiarism. We charged that the remarks preceding the publication of the articles mentioned, were from another paper. We did not mean to insinuate that the Editorial on those articles was stolen. The Editor of the Review virtually "acknowledged the corn" in a conversation with us while on the return trip from the Milwaukee Mass Meeting! Is the Review appeased?

QUERY?—Can some Republican tell us how many Democrats were delegates at the recent "Democratic-republican-Union Convention?" It would be refreshing to have them pointed out!

CAN Republicans informs us in what does a Union Convention consist? Was the Madison gathering on Wednesday a Union Convention? If so in what did the union consist?

A GOOD JOKE.—The Motor recently enlarged and donned a new head. Republican and some Democratic papers throughout the State have been complimenting the Mote on its new dress.

EDITORIAL ITEMS.—The 34th (drafted) regiment arrived at Milwaukee on Sunday last, and are now in Camp Washburn waiting to be mustered out.

Gen. Tuttle, who has been nominated by the Iowa Democracy for Governor, is a veteran soldier of the Union Army. Will Republicans support him?

The Wisconsin Pinery, Watertown, Democrat, Racine Journal—all "War Democratic" newspapers in this State—support our State Ticket! The Green Bay Advocate takes the opposite tack. Why? Because the latter wanted to be the Democratic nominee for Governor and failed.

Col. Murphy, of Holly Springs memory, has sued Brick Pomeroy for libel, affixing his damages at 10,000. The libel consists in Brick's saying that Murphy, in the opinion of the public was a coward and a traitor."

A correspondent of the Sentinel says, two editors at Manitowoc recently had a disgraceful street fight. A Republican was the attacking party. Cause: offensive language by the other editor.

$1,359,392.88 in claims for damages resulting in the late riot, have been presented against New York City.

Both political parties are claiming the next Congress. The N. Y. Herald says it will be anti-Administration.

Expediency vs. Principle.

C. W. Fitch, Esq., the editor of the Racine Journal, who has quite as much right to speck for "war democrats" as any other man in the state, not only gives a hearty and efficient support to the noble ticket placed in nomination at Madison, but thus takes the skin off the shallow demagogues who have dared to abuse all sorts of democrats by suggesting their names in connection with the republican state ticket:

Potter, whose services have been rated above those of any number of his party in the state, is not mentioned, and the many really worthy, able and respectable members of the republican party—gentlemen who are above the tricks of demagogues—who, in the walks of private life, have lived and become virtuous, christian citizens—are not so much as thought of. Expediency is the ruling power—the magic string that is to dance men into office, and perpetuate political and pecuniary benefits. This man will draw the Norwegian vote, that man the German, the other man the soldiers, and "our side will win."

We had rather see the democratic party nominate men who are unpopular—even those who are unworthy—than to resort to the trick of expediency for the sake of success. It is demoralizing to any man or set of men to place him or them under obligations to any particular nationality or organization—civil or military for their votes. A return is expected for such favors by those who profess and claim to control this peculiar kind of strength, and the demand is sure to come. With such a state of things, how is it possible to hope for purity in the state and legislative departments! How is it possible, unless the political parties of the day, inaugurate reformations, for Wisconsin ever to recover from her past shameful experiences, or hope for a different record in the future.

The Soldiers and the Nomination.

We learn that in such portions of the army as have heard of the state democratic nominations the warmest approval is expressed of the action of the convention. The candidates are generally known to the rank and file as true men. On one occasion the announcement was received with vociferous expressions of enthusiasm. We are also informed that Gen. Starkweather, Col. Hobart, Col. Larrabee and other prominent officers in the army express their cordial approbation of the ticket as one of the strongest ever placed in nomination.—Mil. News.

COL. C. S. BENTON.—The Chatfield [Minn.] Democrat has the following notice of our candidate for Secretary of State.

We have the honor of a personal acquaintance with one of the nominees, Col. C. S. Benton, than whom a more competent, high-minded, honorable gentleman is not to be found in the "Badger State," or any other country. If Col. B. is a true type of the whole ticket, it must undoubtedly be successful. So mote it be.

OUR TICKET.—Even the opposition press is compelled reluctantly to bear testimony to the sterling worth of our candidates. The Kenosha Telegraph, a rank republican paper, holds the following language concerning them:

Some of the candidates are personally known to us, others politically or by reputation, and we are not disposed to say a word against one of them, on any other than political grounds.

The Madison Patriot denies that Benton, its candidate for State Treasurer, was a Breckinridge man. Will it inform us whether Pierpoint, its candidate for Bank Comptroller, was not one of the Breckinridge electoral candidates for this state. The records of that organization are difficult to be got at, but if our memory is not at fault, research will establish the fact that Mr. H. S. Pierpont, the democratic candidate for Bank Comptroller was a candidate on the Breckinridge electoral ticket for this state.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

If the Sentinel must be proscriptive, why does it make distinctions? It cannot be ignorant of the fact that Daniel S. Dickinson, Edwin M. Stanton, John A. Dix, Benj. F. Butler, John Brough, republican candidate for Governor of Ohio—Col Demming, the republican member of Congress, from Connecticut—Daniel E. Sickles, James T. Brady, E. K. Calkins, and a great many others, were Breckinridge men at the time of which it speaks.

Nevertheless, we do not object to the inconsistency of proscribing the two gentlemen named, if it will turn to Brough, Butler and the rest, and sweep them in-to the same political oblivion. —Racine Journal.

Governor Wallace and Secretary Daniels left Portland, Oregon, by boat, on the 4th ultimo, to organize the new territory Idaho. The design is to put the new government into operation immediately, and elect a delegate to represent the territory in the next Congress.

War News.

Washington, August 18. — Last week one of our scouts crossed the river at U. S. Ford, and took dinner with some of the rebels upon the Chancellorville battle ground. A large gang of negroes was employed in getting out timber for the construction of a bridge. Reports in circulation among the rebels were to the effect that U. S. and Banks' Fords were to be bridged, so as to enable Lee to make a rapid advance upon Dumfries and Fairfax, thereby cutting off our communication with Washington.

It is generally believed in military circles that Lee will avail himself of the opportunity now afforded by the decimated condition of our army, to make a desperate effort for the destruction of the Army of the Potomac. It is not at all improbable that the rebels will attack us, and we may yet have the annual struggle upon the plains of Manassas and Bull Run.

Affairs at Centreville remain quiet.

Gen. King has been searching energetically for Mosby, and has at length succeeded in driving him beyond the Blue Ridge. The probabilities now are that he will not escape. Our cavalry is close upon them, and unless unusually good fortune attends they cannot evade us.

Cincinnati, Aug 19.—Hon. John A. Gurley died at his residence near Cheviot, Hamilton County, this afternoon.

The Cleveland Herald says: "The government has decided not to retain any officer in the army whose views on the war policy are not in concord with its own."

A party of negro troops from Island No. 10. perpetrated most horrible crimes on Tuesday of last week, at Compromise, Tenn. They murdered a white family numbering six persons, including a man of 80 years, and a child of 2, ravishing a girl of 14 before putting her to death. Twelve of the assassins have been arrested, but six are yet at large.

Since the first of last February, Colonel Wilder, of Rosecrans army, has been twenty-eight times through the rebel lines, and taken 1,157 prisoners, about 4,000 horses and a small army of slaves. In the last expedition he took about 600 prisoners, 800 horses and 250 slaves, killed 10 guerrillas, and mortally wounded Colonel Gant. He lost one man, private Stewart, of 17th Indiana. He has hung five and shot fifteen rebels, including a second lieutenant, caught with our uniform on, in accordance with the orders of Gen. Rosecrans. Wilder is chief of the famous mounted infantry.

Bragg's army in, perhaps, the worst shattered and demoralized army it the field. Desertions, disease, retreats and hardships have made it but the wreck of its former self, and their is little probability of its offering any considerable resistance to Rosecrans, even if he were to attempt to march through Georgia to Savannah.

The Carbondale, Ill., Times says a Mrs. Bowers was attacked by a panther, in Jackson county, Illinois, a few days ago. She was saved by her husband, who happened to be near by. The attack occurred near De Soto, Illinois, where a littel girl was killed by a wild animal (probably the same,) on the 17th ult. A large body of hunters had turned out in pursuit of the animal.

Spunky Calumet.

Calumet county casts about thirteen hundred votes. In 1860 it gave a round hundred majority for Lincoln. The Calumet Times, edited by John P. Hume, says now:

We pledge Calumet county, (and we feel safe in asserting it,) to give at least 350 majority for H. L. Palmer and the balance of the ticket is beyond a doubt.

MAINE.—We learn from our member of congress, who was a member of the recent excursion to Portland, that the democracy of Maine are sanguine of their ability to carry that state. The majority against them there two years ago between twenty and thirty thousand—one year ago but six or seven thousand. This year it will probably be wholly wiped out, placing the state in democratic hands. From Minnesota to Maine, not only the young democracy, but the old Jackson guard are awake and tireless for victory!—Mil. News.

COL. GUPPY.—Col. Guppy was in the city yesterday on his way to Portage City, having received a brief furlough to make a visit home. Among the many distinguished officers in the army from Wisconsin, none of any rank stands deservedly higher in public estimation than Colonel Guppy. He ought to have been elected to Congress from his district last year, and it is solely to the republican enemies of the Union that he was not. The public needs no assurance that he is pleased with the democratic nominations, and will give them all the support consistent with his duties in the field.—Mil. News

Among the "life long democratic-republican-Union men" present at the "Democratic-Republican-Union" convention yesterday, were such "life long democratic-republican-Union men" as Spooner of Walworth, David Atwood of Madison, M. M. Davis of Outagamie, and others. These are the men got together to give us a "democratic-republican-Union ticket." Oh, the patsiots!—Mil. News.

When the movement was made in Congress to refund General Jackson's fine, the old patriot, then in retirement at the Hermitage, wrote to a Senator a letter on the subject in which he said: "I would be the last man on earth to do any act which would invalidate the principle that THE MILITARY SHOULD ALWAYS BE SUBJECT TO THE CIVIL POWER."

Odds and Ends.

Dr Hoyt has just returned from the Idaho gold mines, and reports the droughts extending over the entire route, streams which were difficult to pass last year being now dry. He also reports a battle of three hours between the passengers on two steamboats on the Missouri river and seventy or eighty Sioux Indians, in which twenty-eight Indians were killed and forty or fifty wounded, and three whites killed and two wounded. The fight occured about one hundred miles below Fort Union. The steamboats were the Sheveport and Robert Campbell. They were on a sand-bar. They had two howitzers, and were barricaded with buffalo robes. Hoyt says all the Indians this side of the Rocky Mountains are hostile, and thinks that Captain Fisk's expedition will fail, as the drought alone will be a sufficient obstacle.

Small as Connecticut is, she can boast of having nearly 3,000 industrial establishments, and a capital to the amount of $16,000,000 invested in manufacturing business, giving employment to 60,000 hands. If we add together all the industrial products of North Carolinia, South Carolinia, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Texas, and Mississippi, then Connecticut is $20,000,000 in advance of them all.

The President of the St. Paul and Pacific Railroad Company has purchased, in England, 15,000 tons of iron, 15,000 of which have arrived in New York, and the remainder is in transit. A new locomotive is en route from Philadelphia and nothing now but low water will prevent the completion of that railroad, by January next, over eighty miles north of St. Paul.

The Church of which Rev. Charles Beecher [recently pronounced heretical] is a pastor, have repudiated the decision of the Council, and stand by the discarded clergyman.

Hon. James B. Clay, who, some months ago, left his home in Kentucky and went to the south as a sympathizer with the rebellion, is now at Niagara Falls, on the Canada side, where he is said to be in the last stages of consumption.

The way the Mississippi has "opened trade" is explained by a New Orleans newsboy who went up to Port Hudson. On his return he was asked if he saw the surrender. "Oh, yes, I went in with the army." "What did they do?" "Gardner guv up his sword, and then they raised the stares and stripes on the flagstaff." "Well what then?"—"They opened a sutler's shop down on the landing."

The La Crosse Republican estimates the amount of surplus raised in Wisconsin this year at twenty millions of bushels.

It is understood among General Scott's personal friends that he is now engaged at West Point in completing memoirs of his life and times.

The Sentinel charges that the Hon. Charles S. Benton, our nominee for State Treasurer, was a Breckinridge man in 1860. This is NOT the case. Mr. Benton warmly supported Judge Douglas, and endorsed the views of that great and good statesman.—Madison Patriot.

The Winona Republican says the survey of the St. Paul and Winona Railroad is progressing finely. The engineers who are engaged in this work have reached Lake City on their way to Winona, and have found a remarkable easy grade on the entire distance.

The great bridge over the Susquehanna river at Columbia, Penn., which was destroyed by fire on the 28th of June, in consequence of Lee's invasion, was constructd in 1834, and cost $157,000. It was 5,020 feet long, 14 feet above high water, built all of wood, except about 40 feet; comprised 28 spans, resting upon stone abutments; was covered; roof above roadway 25 feet; had two tracks also, used for vehicles and foot passengers, and two paths, the latter for the Susquehanna and Tidewater canal.

The Wisconsin Ticket.

The Peoria (Ill.) Mail, in speaking of the democratic nominations in this State says:

Taken as a whole, this is perhaps the best ticket ever presented to the Democrats of Wisconsin. Every man of which it is composed is personally popular and know throughout the entire State for their unflinching advocacy of Democratic principles and for their sterling integrity both in public and private life.

Drunkenness Cured.—The inebriate may now bid defiance to the tempting cup. Dr. Zane's Antidote for Strong Drink is a certain for Drunkenness. It creates a dislike for strong drink, and can be administered without the knowledge of the patient. Price $1 a box. Sent by mail to any address, by S. C. UPHAM, 403 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. Circulars sent free.

The Diseases of Error.—(Les Maladies d'Erreur.) I, John B. Ogden, M. D., author and publisher of the above work, do hereby promise and agree to send (free of charge) to any young man who will write for it, a sample copy for perusal. The proper study of mankind is man. This valuable work is issued and sent forth for the benefit of suffering humanity. It treats in simple language on all the diseases of Error, including Seminal Weakness, Nervous Debility, Indigestion, Melancholy, Insanity, Wasting Decay, Impotency, &c., &c.—giving safe, speedy, and effectual prescriptions for their permanent cure, together with much valuable information. All who favor me with a desire to read my work shal receive a sample copy by return mail, free of charge.

ROBACK'S STOMACH BITTERS

It has long been the aim of physicians to find a combination of medicines having the requisite stimulating and tonic properties to relieve and cure the common complaints of Biliousness, Dyspepsia, orders, Langour, Headache, Lowness of Spirits, Indigestion, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, &c., which are the diseases incident to this climate. The remedy has been discovered by Dr. Roback, and in thousands of cases the merits of his Bitters have been tested in the above complaints, and there is but one voice from the people, and that is in favor of these truly wonderful Stomach Bitters. We advise all who are afflicted and need an agreeable tonic for the troubles above indicated, to commence at once using these Bitters. See advertisement

"How Beautiful and Natural."

This remark was overheard on the street the other day, made by a lady after she had been examining one of those splendid pictures taken at Patton's new gallery of art. The fact is that Mr. Patton has purchased one of the finest instruments in the State, with the latest improvements, and can't help turning out the most satisfactory pictures. Why, those full length Ambrotypes cannot be surpassed for beauty and clearness. The arrangement of his light enables him to take the most perfect of pictures. But the proof of the pudding is always in the eating, so we say go and see and satisfy yourselves.

Lyon's Kathairon.

Kathairon is from the Greek word "Kathro," or "Kathairo," signifying to cleanse, rejuvinate, restore. This article is what its name signifies. For preserving, restoring and beautifying the human hair it is the most remarkable preparation in the world. It is again owned and put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention which gave it a sale of over one million bottles per annum. It is a most delightful Hair Dressing. It eradicates scurf and dandruff. It keeps the head cool and clean. It makes the hair rich, soft and glossy. It prevents the hair from falling off and turning gray. It restores hair upon bald heads. Any lady or gentleman who values a beautiful head of hair should use Lyon's Kathairon. It is known and used throughout the civilized world.—Sold by all respectable dealers. DEMAS S. BARNES & CO., Proprietors, New York. 7mw

Heimstreet's Inimitable Hair Restorative.

IT IS NOT A DYE, but restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of lunar caustic, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and afford themselves no dressing. Heimstreet's Inimitable Coloring not only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty, promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original Hair Coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable dealers, or can be procured by them of the commercial agents, D. S. Barnes & Co., 202 Broadway, N. York. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. 7mw

The Confessions and Experience of an Invalid.—Published for the benefit, and as a warning and A CAUTION TO YOUNG MEN who suffer from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay of Manhood, etc., supplying at the same time THE MEANS OF SELF CURE.—By one who has cured himself after being put to great expense and injury through medical humbug and quackery. By enclosing a post-paid addressed envelope, single copies may be had of the author.

Hagan's Magnolia Balm.

This is the most delightful and extraordinary article ever discovered. It changes the sunburnt face and hands to a pearly satin texture of ravishing beauty, imparting the marble purity of youth, and the distingue appearance so inviting in the city belle of fashion. It removes tan, freckles, pimples, and roughness from the skin, leaving the complexion fresh, transparent and smooth. It contains no material injurious to the skin. Patronized by Actresses and Opera Singers. It is what every lady should have. Sold everywhere. DEMAS S. BARNES & CO., General Agents, 202 Broadway, N. Y.

EDITOR OF CRESCENT:

Dear Sir: With your permission I wish to say to the readers of your paper that I will send by return mail to all who wish it, (free) a recipe, with full directions for making and using a simple Vegetable Balm, that will effectually remove, in 10 days, Pimples, Blotches, Tan, Freckles, and all Impurities of the Skin, leaving the same soft, clear, smooth and beautiful.

I will also mail free to those having Bald Heads or Bare Faces, simple directions and information that will enable them to start a full growth of Luxuriant Hair, Whiskers, or a Moustache, in less than 30 days. All applications answered by return mail without charge.

Respectfully yours, THOS. F. CHAPMAN,
4m2 Chemist, No. 831 Broadway, New York.

ESTRAY COW.

Came into my premises on or about the 17th of August inst., a large spotted Cow, white face, red eyes, one damaged eye, short tail, red legs, small horns, a week cow. Owner requested to prove property and take her away. MICHAEL McGINNIS.

Democratic Club Meeting.

The Democrats of Appleton are invited to meet at T. R. Hudd's Office, on Saturday Evening, at 8 o'clock, to ORGANIZE A DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

☞ SECEDED.—Yes, the die has been cast! The city has seceded from the county—in regard to the County Superintendency of Schools There is a statutory provision giving cities of the State the privilege of forming Boards of Education, and choosing a seperate Superintendent of Schools. At the last meeting of the Common Council resolutions were adopted carrying into effect this change. It is claimed that it will save us expense and be more satisfactory to the generality of our citizens. The question now comes up, does this necessarily deprive the city of a voice in the election of the County Superintendent, and are residents of the city, eligible to that position? We think that the separation clearly deprives us of a vote on the County Superintendent In the other case we are not clear about ☞ ENCOURAGEMENT.—Editors sometimes have hours of golden sunshine, as well as other people. True, they frequently meet with curses and fault-findings, notwithstanding their whole energy is devoted to the welfare of those very men But now and then a cheerful acknowledgement removes the former harshness. The other day, Mr. JOHN SNIDER (an old subscriber, and who owed us but 33c,) handed us a $5 Greenback with the remark—"Send me the Crescent as long as that will pay for, and when you want some more money, call again!" Would to heaven all mankind had the whole-souled integrity of Honest JOHN SNIDER!

☞ A pleasant looking company of Oshkosh Sabbath School excursionists took a ride to this place on Wednesday afternoon last, and remained a couple of hours.

☞ Our fellow-townsman, Tho's C Dunn, Acting Master of the U. S. Gunboat Kanawha, stationed off Mobile, is in town on a brief furlough.

☞ ERRATA.—Through the blundering of one of our compositors, our statement of the value of the box sent forward to our soldiers by the Ladies Aid Society read $29. It should have been $92

☞ Let every Democrat in this place be present at the meeting called in another column Success depends on thorough organization

☞ Indians and Blackberries are as thick here as hasty pudding.

☞ New Wheat is coming into our market gradually, and commands fair prices The crop is a good one.

☞ Carpenters and housebuilders will find steady employment and good wages in Appleton. We want more mechanics—industrious and energetic workmen.

☞ SNIDERSVILLE VILLAGE.—This flourishing burg is situated about three miles north-east of Kaukauna Village, is the center of a fine but new agricultural district, and is rapidly working itself into public notice, by the indomitable energy, honesty, and thrift of its population. What they need most is a number of good mechanics No better location for a good Blacksmith and Wagon Shop can be found, while a limited number of Carpenters, &c, would be very desirable.

☞ Our WOOLEN FACTORY.—Mr. Hutchinson has returned from the East, after having succeeded in securing the most superb machinery for the new Factory. It will be double the capacity of the former machinery. All honor to Mr. Hutchinson's indomitable energy.

☞ OUR VOLUNTEERS.—"Our Woodland Home," which, according to the Census of 1860, had a population of a little over 2,600, has furnished to the various Wisconsin Reg'ts, the following volunteers: 1st ward 49; 2d do 91, 3d do. 31: 4th do 14: or a total of one hundred and eighty-five! Besides the foregoing, quite a number have enlisted in other State reg'ts and in the U S Regular Army These troops have all been the best material—educated, sturdy men. Can any other place of the same population show as good an exhibit?

☞ OFFICE CONVERSATION.—The other day a son of Old Erin came into our sanctum, and presently his eyes lit on the type, when he said:

"What d'ye do with thim brads?"

On being informed that they were the type which made the letters, he further exclaimed:

"Och, that I should come here thin, to see such a thing as that! Sure an' its strange that ye can use thim brads!

☞ Don't forget the Soldier's Festival this (Friday) evening

☞ During the Campaign every voter should thoroughly keep posted, and there is no better way than to subscribe for one or more good papers. The Crescent will give a thorough Review of every new development in a candid manner, avoiding tirade and vituperation so much the fashion in political journals Of course, the wider circulation we have, the more extensive will be our influence We have, therefore, concluded to suffer a temporary sacrifice, in order to restore our state to just and honest government. We will send the Crescent during the campaign to single subscribers for THIRTY CENTS! Ten or copies for TWENTY-FIVE CENTS EACH! Every man in Outagamie County should have our paper in his family. Let each of our subscribers in the rural districts take this matter in hand

☞ Quite an interesting surgical operation was performed by Dr. Tompkins, of this city, on a dropsical case, in which the Dr. drew from the patient thirteen quarts of fluid!

☞ Why is it that C J. Pettibone does such an enormous trade? Because he patronizes printer's ink liberally!

☞ "The times are hard," exclaims some one, "and goods are very dear!" Yes, but C. G. Adkins sells everything at almost cost. Go and see for yourselves.

☞ We remember when Uncle Peter formerly had nearly his entire stock hung up outside as a sign! But what "a change has come o'er the spirit of his dreams!" A big store, full of choice goods, and at fair prices, is now conducted by the same affable, genial and accommodating "Uncle" to everybody

☞ Frank Bernard whole-souled, big-hearted "Frank," who came here only a few years since, with but three cents cash capital to his name, has now a good property and a brisk little business establishment! Appleton is the burg for energetic men!

☞ Lee & Harriman are bound to educate the world known as Outagamie county All the latest and best literature, daily news, &c, can be procured there.

☞ Geo W Driggs, Sergeant-Major of the 8th Wis Vols, and the Correspondent of the Madison Patriot, gave us a call on Saturday last He is on a brief furlough and will return soon to the tented field George was formerly a student of Lawrence University.

☞ "COPPERHEAD OATS"—Such was the label accompanying samples of the heaviest and finest oats we have ever seen They were grown on the farm of L Perrot in the town of Greenville.

☞ RUNAWAY.—Osborn Bruteau, a lad of 12 or 14 summers, was thrown from a horse last Sunday, and had a severe cut inflicted in his face

☞ The Enrollment Lists for the several towns in this county have now been published by us, "free, gratis, for nothing," and are rapidly being corrected Nearly every town is responding in the way of assisting in having reliable lists This is right, and we hope all will do likewise Some of the lists, through the cowardice or carelessness on the part of enrolling officers, are full of blunders Every man is vitally interested in having a thorough, full and impartial Enrollment Dep'y Provost Marshal Ming will be happy to right any errors

☞ GAME.—Black Squirrels, Coons, &c, are now swarming the woods Some farmers have lost considerable corn by these voracious animals Why not may our citizens organize two parties of hunters and have a gala day, as in ye olden time? The party coming out second best to pay for a grand old supper! Let us have a big social holiday. What say our citizens?

Greenville, Aug 18th, 1860

Eds Crescent—I noticed in the last Motor a letter from a "Small Star" Had he signed his name L E Darling, he would not be known any better, as every man present applauded Mr Driscoll's remarks except the little star, who informs the Motor "that Mr Driscoll's best political friends thought it much out of place at such a meeting." It's strange that the whole proceedings were not denounced as a Copperhead operation, to give aid to the rebels. Methinks self-interest was the reason Notice has been given for another meeting of the same kind on Saturday the 22d inst, at which we hope we may be favored with more of just such speeches as were made at this last gathering. They were sound and patriotic. BIG STAR.

As will be seen elsewhere in this day's paper, we have noticed the correspondence of the Motor [Eds

☞ Go to Lester & Foster's

☞ Sobriety, industry and honesty, are the means to ultimate and true success. How many men, reader, can you select whom you knew ten years ago, and who are now basking in the sunshine of prosperity? Did they not live according to the above axiom? How many are there, in the same time, who are now toiling in the dregs of poverty? Did they not pursue the contrary path? Possibly some have crept into a mushroom existence; but they will tarry but a day, and when the sun turns its rays upon them, they will melt away like the snow of Spring. The true road to success is not macadamized It is not through sylvan bowers or by babbling streamlets, It is not over level plains or down placid streams But it is corduroy, and bounds o'er hills and rock, through wilderness and desert places Sometimes it crosses angry floods, or mingles 'mid stormy billows When the termination is gained, silver fountains bubble 'neath your feet; beautiful buds of plumage fill the redolent air with joyous carolings, happiness and contentment will spread their wings over your threshold. Heaven and its influences will then be but a little way off! Try it, young and middle aged, and, our word for it, you will ever be conscience-easy

☞ Fay & Humphrey's New Goods are on the way and will be here in a few days Popular dealers are these young men

☞ ROUTES TO THE EAST.—It is a matter of surprise, not to say of actual unbelief, to many, if not most of the people of the Northwest, West and Southwest, that from Green Bay and La Crosse, on the North, to Cairo and St. Louis, on the South, the shortest route to New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, lies through Pittsburgh When we add that this route so generally supposed to be a circuitous one to New York, is actually nearly one hundred miles shorter than the route via Toledo, Buffalo, and Albany, and sixty miles less distance than via Toledo & Erie Railway, this fact becomes only the more astounding to the large number of persons who have heretofore regarded Buffalo as on the direct line to New York A further advantage of the route via Pittsburgh, is, that there is but one change of cars, between Chicago and New York, or Philadelphia, an advantage of great moment to ladies and families, and withal of no less comfort to business men All these advantages can be secured, by buying your ticket to the East over the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway, which can be had in Chicago, and at all the Ticket Offices of all prominent points in the West

The reduction of Fare just made by this line, to $18 00 from Chicago to New York, a privilege belonging to the shortest line to make the routes, should induce our people generally to try this new and admirably appointed line, whereby they can reach the East in less time and for a lower fare than by any other route

FIRST PREMIUM COOK STOVES.

This Stove took the first premium over all other COOK STOVES at the State Fair held at Rochester on the 1st day of October

Economy is Wealth.

This maxim will be fully demonstrated by buying an

AMERICAN HOT AIR COOKING STOVE,

As it will bake, broil and roast better than any other stove with a saving of 25 per cent in fuel and avoiding every inconvenience.

They have the following advantages:

1st They are constructed with a view of great durability, all the plates exposed to the fire are made of an extra thickness

2d The flues are lined with a non conducting cement thereby applying the heat directly to the oven and the oven can be heated and kept in baking order with less fuel than any other Stove

3d They have a hot air draft which not only makes the fuel burn freely and last long, but adds to the heating and baking facilities

4th They consume all the gas from the fuel thus by adding largely to the amount of heat obtained from the quantity of fuel used

5th The stove is mounted and finished in the most superior manner The ovens large and well ventilated The stove is convenient in form and made for use to adapt the language of one who have used this Stove "it will do more work with less fuel than any other stove" In proof we add the following testimony

From the Albany Argus

"THE AMERICAN HOT AIR COOKING STOVE.—We have used this Stove for three months past and have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best Cook Stove we have any knowledge of It seems to be perfect in every respect We guarantee that it will give good satisfaction to any family who purchase it."

What Rev. Dr. Sprague says of it

Albany, December 9, 1861

MR SAGER—My Dear Sir My family have made a thorough trial of the American Hot Air Cooking Stove, and the regard it both on the score of convenience and economy as having greatly the advantage of any other they have ever tried Indeed they consider it so perfect as to leave nothing to be desired.

Very truly yours W B SPRAGUE

From the Newburgh Telegraph

Few articles of housekeeping are so important as a good cooking stove and there are fewer articles in the housekeeping line in which there are so many candidates for popular favor Among the latest is one for some months past advertised in our columns and which we have had in use a still longer period It is called the "American Hot-Air Gas Burning Cooking Stove" and taking it altogether it is in our judgment the very best cooking stove now in the market It has many peculiarities which perhaps could not be well understood except by an actual examination and our own use of it during several months has shown us that it is fully capable of all that is claimed for it We do not find it lacking in anyone particular of its high reputation for economy convenience and its extraordinary capacity for business, so speak—for it affords all the facilities of the range in a remarkable degree The castings are unusually heavy, and indeed we hardly know of a requisite which is wanting to to make it the best cooking stove now on sale"

Official Paper of the City and County.

APPLETON, AUGUST 22.

ENGLISH POST-OFFICE STATISTICS.—The report of the Postmaster-General of England for the past year has just been published. As heretofore, the department pays a handsome surplus, this time amounting to nearly six millions of dollars, the actual revenue for the year having been nearly nineteen millions. The number of letters transmitted during the year were as follows: In England, four hundred and ninety-seven millions; in Ireland, fifty-one millions; and in Scotland, fifty-seven millions. The proportion of letters to the population was twenty-four to each person in England, nine in Ireland and nineteen in Scotland. As compared with the previous year, there was an increase of twelve millions. The number of papers delivered during the year was nearly seventy-three millions—an increase of about half a million over the previous year.

It has taken two years to convince the country, what Gen. McClellan learned long ago, that spades are trumps. Spades did the work at Vicksburg, at Port Hudson, and are now doing it at Charleston. But it must be a spade that is spade; with no bungler to handle it, but an engineer of the McClellan stamp.—Boston Post.

A preacher in Illinois, giving a familiar account of the prodigal son's return, dwelt touchingly on the father's circumstances when he saw the son "afar off," thus: "The sun had not yet sunk beneath the western horizon. There, in his easy chair, before the door, sits the aged father, reading the paper!"

BATTLE WITH THE UTE INDIANS.—A fierce battle was fought on the 8th of July, in Idaho territory, between a band of the Ute Indians and a company of the Seventh Kansas Volunteers, led by Lieutenants Brundley and Williams. After two hours fight Lieut. Williams charged them with the bayonet, and the Indians broke for the mountains, leaving twenty-one killed and thirty-nine wounded on the field of battle. Our loss was slight, the Indians firing mostly over our heads.

A BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATION.—It is said of the Icelanders that they scrupulously observe the usage of reading the sacred Scriptures every morning, the whole family joining in the singing and prayers. When the Icelander awakes, he salutes no person until he has saluted God. He usually hastens to the door, adores the Author of Nature and Providence, and then steps back into the dwelling saying to his family, "God grant you a good day!" What a beautiful illustration is this of the Christian obligation on the part of households to recognize and worship.

JUST OF AGE.—On the 29th day of September next it will be just 21 years since the National Division of Sons of Temperance was instituted. The day is to be observed by a grand Anniversary Festival by all the divisions in Wisconsin, to be held in Beaver Dam, in the Pleasant street Grove, near the Depot.

Prentice says the American eagle only needs a few tail feathers replaced and he will be just as good a bird as he ever was.

General Election Notice.

Notice is hereby given, that at the general election to be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday, being the third day of November next, in the several towns, wards, and election precincts in the State of Wisconsin, and by the qualified electors of this State, in the actual military service of the United States or of this State, at the several posts, camps or places where the regiment or battery of artillery, or part of a regiment not less than one company, under a separate command, to which such electors belong, may be on that day, the following officers are to be elected, to wit:

A Member of Assembly in each Assembly District of the State; and such County Officers as are by law required to be elected at such election.

Said election to be conducted, the votes canvassed and returns made in accordance with the provisions of chapter seven of the Revised Statutes of 1858, and chapter eleven of the laws of 1862, extra session.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the [SEAL.] State, at the capitol in Madison, this 3d day of August, a. d. 1863.

JAMES T. LEWIS, Secretary of State.

Pursuant to the above notice by the Sec'y of State, I hereby give notice that, at the next general election to be held in and for the county of Outagamie and state of Wisconsin, said election to be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday, being the third day of November next, in the several towns, wards and election precincts, the following officers are to be elected, to wit:

A Governor, in place of Edward Salomon; a Lieutenant Governor; a Secretary of State, in place of Ja's T. Lewis; a State Treasurer, in place of Samuel D. Hastings; an Attorney General, in place of Winfield Smith; a State Superintendent, in place of J. L. Pickard; a Bank Comptroller, in place of W. H. Ramsey; a State Prison Commissioner, in place of A. P. Hodges; also a State Senator for the 22d district, in place of Thomas R. Hudd, whose term of office will expire on the first Monday of January, a. d. 1863. A Member of Assembly for the district comprising the county of Outagamie, in the place of Byron Douglas, whose term of office will expire on the first Monday of January, a. d. 1864. Three County Commissioners, as follows: a Commissioner in place of W. H. P. Bogan; also one in place of James McGillan; also one in place of J. J. Steffen. A Register of Deeds in place of P. H. O'Brien, whose term of office will expire on the 31st day of December next.

Said election to be conducted, the votes canvassed and returns made in accordance with the provisions of chapter seven of the Revised Statutes of 1858, and chapter eleven of the Laws of 1862, extra session.

And uniformly conducts business in the most efficient, serviceable, and satisfactory manner.

Prudence and Economy, as well as good management, urges the wisdom of Insurance when a most reliable kind is obtainable at fair rates and rules.

In this important matter the first essential is to secure the best, and the Management of the Ætna design especially maintaining integrity for sterling business qualities in the future as the past, confidently looking for reward in a greater appreciation and preference from property owners.

LOOK TO QUALITY

As a paramount consideration, reverse the rule making a low rate of premium the chief essential; for the cheapest rate is too frequently only an index of the poorest insurance.

As our rates are graduated by the law of compensation, after ample experience, the propriety of Insurance extends with equal force to the safer classes of property it does to those of a more hazardous nature. The safer the risk the lower the percentage—the greater the hazard the higher the premium. So protect your property by a good policy from the Ætna. 1Oct

More Valuable than Gold!

Bryan's Life Pills.

Science has at last brought to light the true antidote of sickness, and mankind can find a refuge from sorrow, pain and disease.

By the use of BRYAN'S LIFE PILLS, those who wander in the depth of sorrow, and whose nervous temperament adds a keener anguish to every ill of life, become, as it were, blessed with a new existence. And whilst this wonderful change is effected, there is no secondary action to leave weakness in its train or bad effects upon the mind or body.

The nervous Hypochondriac need no longer resort to Opium, Morphine, Liquors, or other stimulants to drown the cares of life. BRYAN'S LIFE PILLS are a perfect substitute; they regulate the Stomach, Liver and Biliary secretions, the derangement of which is the chief cause of Nervousness, Headache, &c., and warm the cold hearted with the love of ardent love.

The Poet is inspired with thoughts of brilliancy. The Orator with words of fire. The Soldier with indomitable courage. The Scholar with new and brilliant ideas. The Inventor with bright conceptions of discoveries.

BRYAN'S LIFE PILLS are a universal Nervine, owing no equal, overleaping the barriers of prejudice, and curing like magic, all cases of Nervousness, Emaciation, Hysteria, Low Spirits, WANT OF ENERGY AND EPILEPSY.

They are a sovereign remedy for HEADACHE, and, in fact, all diseases, no matter what their names, that have an origin in nervous derangement of the Stomach and Liver, and their march is onward to perfection.

They operate as a mild cathartic and are adapted for all ages and constitutions.

A few doses will light up the eye with brilliancy, impart a rich glow of beauty to the cheeks, fill the soul with ecstacy, and bring the beauties of the unknown world down to mortal vision.

Melancholy and gloomy anticipations are dispelled, and the demon of ennui is banished.

Loss of power and impotence yields before them as the dew before the rising sun.

Debilitated persons are renewed in strength and vigor, under their magic influences, and they are capable of almost inconceivable endurance.

They possess the power of producing sleep as peaceful as an infant, and of lulling pain like charms from the land of spirits.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, and Prostration is entirely cured by the use of them.

They are a rival to Quinine, as a general tonic and for the cure of Chills and Fever.

The pernicious habit of Opium eating and dram drinking is overcome by the use of them.

The dispirited become hopeful, the despairing happy. The nervous spring into elastic life.

The Author, and Speaker, each receive new ideas, and the pen of fact and fancy is gifted with a skill that entrances the world.

The Soldier forgets the weariness of his march, and is endowed with almost superhuman endurance.

The Mechanic is raised to the highest pinnacle of invention and discovery, and imbued with the spirit of unfailing energy.

Sold by all Druggists, in boxes, 25 cents each. And in large boxes, containing 5 small, $1 each.

They will be sent by mail, prepaid, on receipt of the money, by the proprietor,

It is impossible to enjoy the bloom of health, and vivacity of spirits, unless the Menses are regular as to the time, the quantity, and quality. When they are obstructed, nature makes her efforts to obtain for it some other outlet, and unless these efforts of nature are assisted, the patient usually experiences despondency, Nervousness, and finally Consumption assumes its sway and prematurely terminates a miserable life.

I could furnish any quantity of testimonials of its efficacy from my own patients, but the practice of puffing bought and fictitious ones before the public is so prevalent I do not deem it advisable. My object is to place my medicine before the public, not alone to make money, but to do good. It is providentially true of the American Ladies, that not ten perfectly healthy ones can be found in any one vicinity.

The Early Physical Degeneracy of American People.

Just Published by Dr. A. Stone, Physician to the Troy Lung and Hygienic Institute.

A Treatise on the causes of early physical decline of American people; the cause of nervous debility, consumption and Marasmus.

This work is one of high moral tone, written in chaste yet thrilling language, and appeals directly to the moral consciousness of all parents and guardians especially, detailing scientific and reliable aids and treatment for cure. It will be sent by mail on the receipt of two (3) cent stamps.

Parents and Guardians! fail not to send and obtain this book. Young Men! fail not to send and get this book. Ladies! You too should at once secure a copy of this book.

A Word of Solemn Conscientious Advice to those who will reflect.

A class of maladies prevail to a fearful extent in the community, dooming at least 100,000 youth of both sexes annually, to an early grave. Those diseases are very imperfectly understood. Their external manifestation, or symptoms are nervous debility, relaxation and exhaustion; marasmus or wasting and consumption of the tissues of the whole body; shortness of breathing or hurried breathing on ascending a hill or flight of stairs; great palpitation of the heart; asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; great palpitation of the heart; asthma, bronchitis and sore throat; shaking of the hands and limbs; aversion to society and to business or study; dimness of eye sight, loss of memory, dizziness of the head, neuralgia, pain in various parts of the body; lumbago, dyspepsia or indigestion, &c.

Now in ninety nine cases out of every one hundred, all the above named disorders, and a host of others not named, as consumption of the lungs and that most insidious and wily form of consumption of the spinal nerves, known as Tabes Dorsales, and tabes mesenterica, have their seat and origin in diseases of the pelvis viscera.

Dr. Andrew Stone, Physician to the Troy Lung and Hygienic Institution, is now engaged in treating this class of modern maladies with the most astonishing success. The facilities of cure are sure that patients can be cured at homes, in any part of the country, from accurate descriptions of their case, by letter; and have the medicines sent by Mail or express. Printed interrogatories will be forwarded on application.

Consumption, catarrh and diseases of the throat cured as well at the home of the patients as at the Institution, by sending the cold medicated INHALING BALSAMIC VAPORS, with inhaler and ample directions for their use, and direct correspondence.

Patients applying for interrogatives or advice, must enclose return stamps, to meet attention.

The attending physician will be found at the Institution for consultation, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., each day. Sunday in the forenoon. Address

DR. ANDREW STONE,
Physician to the Troy Lung and Hygienic Institute, and Physician for Diseases of the Heart, Throat and Lungs, 96 Fifth Street, Troy, N. Y. 10-1y
